RIDER TO REQUEST FOR ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSE PRIORITY CLAIM FOR AMOUNTS DUE UNDER LEASE FOR REAL PROPERTY LOCATED AT ROCKFORD, ILLINOIS - STORE NO. 3198

Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company, as Trustee ("M&T"), submits this Request for Administrative Expense Priority Claim For Amounts Due Under Lease for Real Property Located at Rockford, Illinois - Store No. 3198 for post-petition, pre-rejection claims arising, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 365(d)(3), 503(b) and 507(a), in connection with a certain Lease between Circuit City Stores, Inc., as Tenant, and Bond C.C. II Delaware Business Trust, as Landlord, dated June 29, 1995 (the "Lease"), which has been assigned to M&T as collateral security in accordance with various related lending and security agreements (the "Administrative Claim"). A true and correct copy of the Lease is annexed as Exhibit B to this Claim.

On February 19, 2009, the Court entered an Order Under Bankruptcy Code Sections 105, 363 and 365 (I) Approving Bidding and Auction Procedures For Sale of Unexpired Nonresidential Real Property Leases, (II) Setting Sale Hearing Dates, And (III) Authorizing and Approving (A) Sale of Certain Nonresidential Real Property Leases Free And Clear Of All Interest, (B) Assumption And Assignment of Certain Unexpired Nonresidential Real Property Leases and (C) Lease Rejection Procedures (the "Order"), authorizing the Debtors to reject certain unexpired real property leases upon notice to the lessor. On March 5, 2009, the Debtors filed the Notice of Rejection of Unexpired Lease and Abandonment of Personal Property [Docket No. 2434], rejecting the Lease effective as of March 12, 2009.

In relevant part, 11 U.S.C. § 365(d)(3) requires that the Debtor "shall timely perform all the obligations of the debtor ... arising from and after the order for relief under any unexpired lease of nonresidential real property, until such lease is assumed or rejected, notwithstanding section 503(b)(1) of this title." It is well established that a landlord of nonresidential real property should not be forced to contribute its real property for the benefit of the debtor's estate absent adequate compensation. See, for example, In re Trak Auto Corp. 277 B.R. 655, 662 (Bankr.E.D. Va. 2002), aff'd 288 B.R. 114 (E.D. Va. 2003, rev'd on other grounds, 367 F.3d 237 (4th Cir. 2004).

In its Memorandum Opinion dated February 12, 2009 [Docket No. 2107], this Court held that a “lessor need not show that the ‘debtor’s continued possession of its space is a benefit to the estate’ in order to receive administrative expense priority under § 507(a)(2)” (quoting Id. at 665) explaining that, under the accrual method of claim determination, “[a]nything accruing after the entry [of] the order for relief is a post-petition charge that may be elevated to administrative priority under § 507(a)” (quoting id. at 664).

Accordingly, on May 15, 2009, this Court entered its Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Sections 105 and 503 and Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 9007 (I) Setting Administrative Bar Date and Procedures for Filing and Objecting to Administrative Expense Requests and (II) Approving Form and Manner of Notice Thereof approving the Notice of Deadline for Filing Administrative Expense Requests for any right to payment that satisfies section 365(d) and, in the case of unexpired leases of the real property, accrued from and after November 10, 2008 (the “Petition Date”) through and including April 30, 2008.

Therefore, M&T hereby requests payment of its Administrative Claim in the amount of $74,136.81, accrued from the date of the Petition through and including the Rejection Date. In support thereof, M&T submits the Administrative Claim Summary and Analysis, annexed as Exhibit A, setting forth in detail the basis of its Administrative Claim.

This Claim is filed to protect M&T from forfeiture of any claim it may have. Filing of this Claim is not (a) a waiver or release of M&T’s rights, claims or defenses against any person, entity or property; (b) a waiver or release of M&T’s right to have any and all final orders in any and all non-core matters entered only after de novo review by a United States District Judge; (c) a consent by M&T to the jurisdiction of this Court for any purpose other than with respect to this Claim; (d) an election of remedy; (e) a waiver or release of any rights which M&T may have to a jury trial; or (f) a waiver of the right to move to withdraw the reference with respect to the subject matter of this Claim, any objection thereto or any other proceedings which may be commenced in these cases against or otherwise involving M&T, including without limitation, any adversary proceeding that was or may be commenced by any party or committee in this case.
